

OPTIMUM TECHNOLOGY ANNOUNCES SELECTION TO BJA/IJIS PMP COMMITTEE

Columbus, Ohio – February 15, 2010 – Optimum Technology announces that Shan Ramachandran a Technical Project Manager with Optimum's Solutions Practice has been selected as a committee person for the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) / IJIS Institute Prescription Monitoring Program (PMP) Committee.

This committee supports the mission of State PMP's and the development of standards and guidelines for their use.

Additionally Optimum Technology confirms it has been selected as the PMIX Phase 3 vendor to help complete the development work to make the PMIX Hub operational.

Optimum Technology is the leading PMP vendor in the nation having sold 10 State's its PMP software and having actively worked with other states to create and help pass their legislation.

Optimum is an IT consulting and software development firm headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. Optimum has sold its software and solutions in 12 states, over 1500 individual government agencies that serve more than 45 million citizens.